Customizable Console User Interface

Administrators can now configure the Console UI to hide or make visible features such as multiple report icons, the toolbar or the status bar for easier navigation.

The status bar is now hidden by default but can be enabled again in the View menu.

The Reports Icons are also hidden by default. If you would like to enable them please contact support and we can walk you through configuring the client to show them again.

InstantKB
http://www.nbtnet.newboundary.com/supportkb/KnowledgebaseArticle11389.aspx